5 Ways to Ruin an Interview

by Jennifer Waldrip

With so many different steps to the interview process, it is easy to forget there are many ways to be passed up for a job opportunity. While your resume might stand out, over the years our team has seen great candidates miss out on an opportunity, all because of these job interview missteps!

1.) Show up late for an interview

Timeliness is key and it's important to remember to be punctual. If you can't show up on time for an interview, what will that tell a potential employer about your reliability as an employee? Being on time shows you are prepared and organized, and also gives you time to shake off any pre-interview jitters.

Business Brief...

Entrepreneurship: Women In Business Need A Role Model

Female entrepreneurs need to see other women who have followed their dreams and achieved success to believe we, too, can succeed.

So, check out Kay Koplovitz.

She was the founder of USA Network, the first woman president of a television network, and creator of Syfy. She went on to become chairwoman of Fifth & Pacific, the parent company of Kate Spade and Juicy Couture.
