Weekly Article...

6 One-Paragraph Stories About Autumn That Will Make You Cry Pumpkin Spice Tears

by Chelsea Fagan

It is my great pleasure to present this joint effort with one Brianna Wiest, a little nibble of fall to get you ready for all the delicious, crunchy-leaved beauty that awaits us. Enjoy these scenes of autumn life, and feel the literary cable-knit sweater hugging your body close.

1. You're walking through an open-air market with a canvas bag and a big pair of sunglasses (because it's chilly, but still very sunny). You have a cup of coffee in one hand, and with the other you browse each stall and shop for the perfect products to make your dinner tonight. You pick up a loaf of bread here, a few vegetables there, and linger over the jugs of fresh-made cider while a couple of red-gold leaves blow around your feet. Off in the distance, there are a couple of kids laughing as they help their mother pick out a pumpkin to carve, and you make a mental note to wander over later and get one for yourself.

Business Brief...

EDC Gets High Marks At Northrup Grumann Dedication

The Economic Development Commission of Florida's Space Coast's essential role in helping bring Northrop Grumman's expansion - and 1,000 high-paying jobs - to the Space Coast earned the praise and recognition of political and business leaders on Friday at the dedication ceremony for the company's Manned Aircraft Design Center of Excellence.

The expansion is part of consolidation within Northrop Grumman's Aerospace Systems sector, and cities in California, New York and Alabama were among those competing for the new center.
