Daylight Saving Time

Just as sunflowers turn their heads to catch every sunbeam, so too have we discovered a simple way to get more from our sun.

Idea of Daylight Saving Time

The idea of daylight saving was first conceived by Benjamin Franklin (portrait at right) during his sojourn as an American delegate in Paris in 1784, in an essay, "An Economical Project." Read more about Franklin's essay.

Some of Franklin's friends, inventors of a new kind of oil lamp, were so taken by the scheme that they continued corresponding with Franklin even after he returned to America.

Helicopter Tour Operator Hopes To Land In Port Canaveral

A helicopter sightseeing tour operator has changed course after running into opposition in Cape Canaveral over noise.

Mark Grainger of Merritt Island-based Florida Biplanes & Helicopters withdrew his bid to base helicopter tours along State Road A1A. He is now looking to base his operations in Port Canaveral.
