How to Nail Your Second Job Interview

Written By Jimmy Sweeney President of Career Jimmy
Submitted by Jeff Patterson

Getting called in for a second job interview is gratifying but also nerve-wracking. Just the fact that you have made it to this stage in the interview process means that you are definitely one of the top handful of candidates for the job, which is very good news. However, at the second interview level the competition is that much tougher, and the questions that you will receive at the interview are likely to be a lot tougher to answer. Unlike the first stage, which looks to see if you are qualified, the second stage of the job interview process wants to make sure that you are the most qualified. As a result, the questions that you encounter are likely to be a lot more focused and pointed than the first round.
