Friday's Speaker

J. Brewer - "Business Presentation - Earn Income From a Revolutionary Patented Biotech Breakthrough"

J. Brewer has enjoyed a 30 year career of corporate, small business and entrepreneurial engagements in team, leadership and executive positions. J. has combined his FSU education in theater, television and film, his experience in information technology, digital media and business disciplines, and his entrepreneurial skills and spirit to produce key outcomes.

Currently semi-retired, J. is an online video spokesperson, is a freelance videographer and director/producer, and consults on information technology, digital media and business. Producing and co-hosting Speak Out Listen In continues J.'s pattern of fun, worthwhile and rewarding endeavors that have flavored his career.

J. Brewer, Business & Digital Media Mentor

J. lives in Brevard county and serves in advisory roles for several entities. He also has instructed and volunteered at Career Source Brevard (aka Brevard Workforce), the UCF Business Incubation Program and FIT's Women's Business Center on business, information technology and digital media subjects.

Backup Position NEEDS Filling!

Due to potential new jobs being acquired . . . The STN needs to fill one back-up

How To Prevent Being Scammed

by Darity Wesley on 06/2011

"A poet's work is to name the unnamable, to point at frauds, to take sides, start arguments, shape the world, and stop it going to sleep."

-Salman Rushdie

Scams and frauds have been happening for as long as there has been commerce. Though the context of the activity looks much different now than it did in the year 418, high tech instead of at the open market for example, the result is still pretty much the same. The victim loses an asset and the perpetrator gains one by deceptive means.

There are some circumstances that fraudsters are consistently looking for in order to pluck ripe victims. Disasters tend to bring out the best and worst in people and are highly emotional times. The recent flurry of natural disasters is no exception. In the wake of the tsunami in Japan, the flooding along the Mississippi River and tornadoes in the southeast and Midwest U.S., your Privacy Gurus® warn you to be wary of urgent appeals for charitable donations.

We all want to do what we can to help in these situations, and unless you are close geographically to the area, the way we can assist is by offering a monetary contribution. If you are asked in person, by phone, e-mail or postal mail to make a donation, consider these tips about giving wisely:
